Ms. Salinas served on a trial team that won a $37.5 million verdict for Atlas Global Technologies in its patent infringement case against Chinese telecom equipment manufacturer TP-Link. A Texas jury issued the verdict against TP-Link for infringing five patents for wireless routers that meet an industry standard known as “WiFi 6,” which was developed to provide fast, efficient internet connections for high-density locations such as offices, shopping malls and apartment buildings. Following a five-day trial (where Ms. Salinas was praised for her presentation of her client and her team’s damages expert) and just a few hours of deliberations, the jury determined TP-Link owes Atlas $37,481,264 in damages.

Ms. Salinas previously secured a $42.75 million settlement for oil and gas non-operator, Mirada Energy, in its breach of contract case against Oasis Petroleum. For retail marketing firm, Insignia Systems, in its antitrust case against News Corporation and its subsidiary, NAM, Ms. Salinas secured a $20 million settlement in the District of Minnesota.

Ms. Salinas has been recognized as one of the best young lawyers in America by Lawdragon, a Texas Rising Star by Thomas Reuters Super Lawyer, and a Top Women in Law in Houston by the National Diversity Council.

Ms. Salinas also has significant pro bono experience, including defending Harris County Judge Lina Hidalgo against a partisan election challenge (Texas Tribune), working with the ACLU to secure a settlement with Magnolia ISD to eliminate its discriminatory hair policy (Houston Chronicle), co-drafting a Supreme Court amicus brief on political gerrymandering, and successfully arguing an immigration case before the 9th circuit whereby the client was able to remain in the county.

Before joining the firm, Ms. Salinas was a surrogate for President Barack Obama and the youngest member of the Democratic National Committee's Executive Committee. She delivered a nationally televised speech on the final night of the 2012 Democratic National Convention, addressed embassies around the world, and was interviewed by CNN, Univision, Telemundo, NPR, PBS, and USA Today.
