Overview

Y. Gloria Park represents both plaintiffs and defendants in a diverse set of commercial disputes, including antitrust, patent, breach of contract, and securities litigation. Park's clients range from multinational corporations to small businesses and individuals. Her current clients include global energy company, Vitol, and prominent hedge fund, Saba Capital.

Named a Rising Star by New York Law Journal (ALM, 2023), Park plays a critical role in every matter she takes on, and her practice takes her to federal and state courts across the country. Park has briefed and argued dispositive and discovery motions, deposed key witnesses, and examined witnesses at trial.

RECENT VICTORIES

- Securing a favorable post-trial settlement for defendant EnerVest after a jury awarded the plaintiff a fraction of damages sought in a dispute involving breach of contract. Park was a key member of the trial team and examined multiple witnesses at trial.
- Achieving multiple favorable settlements for SpaceTime3D in its patent litigation against Samsung and LG in the Eastern District of Texas. Park shepherded both cases from initial filing of the complaints through settlement. Notably, Park conducted important discovery in both English and Korean in the matters and briefed and argued against a motion to dismiss by LG.
- Securing a favorable settlement for client, Insignia Systems, in its massive antitrust case against industry leader, News Corp., in the District of Minnesota. Park argued against defendants' motion for judgment on the pleadings as well as numerous discovery motions.

BACKGROUND

Park joined Susman Godfrey after clerking for Judge Merrick B. Garland on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit and Judge Sandra L. Lynch on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the First Circuit. She graduated magna cum laude from Harvard College and Harvard Law School, where she served as Executive Editor of the Harvard Law Review.
