Overview

Shauli Bar-On joined Susman Godfrey following his clerkship for Judge Sandra S. Ikuta on the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.

Shauli graduated first in the class from the University of Southern California, Gould School of Law, where he co-founded the law school's trial advocacy team. He also participated in the Legal Aid at Work employment law clinic, in which he represented an indigent client in an administrative appeal before the California Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board and secured benefits for her.

Shauli graduated summa cum laude and phi beta kappa from the University of Southern California. In college, he founded the university's undergraduate moot court team and led the team to a third-place national title.

Shauli continues to assist in coaching USC's undergraduate moot court team. He frequently volunteers as a scoring and presiding judge in competitions sponsored by the American Moot Court Association and American Mock Trial Association.
