

Eleven Partners Deemed “Best and Brightest” on Benchmark Litigation’s 40 and Under Hot List

08.30.2020 | 10 | 42AWARDS & RECOGNITIONS

Touted as “young, ambitious, and accomplished lawyers who stay on top of their industry” by Benchmark Litigation, eleven partners were named to the publication’s 2020 40 and Under Hot List. Considered the “best and brightest law firm partners,” the firm’s honorees hail from all four Susman Godfrey offices and three of the five regions covered by the recognition: Northeast, South, and West.

Debuting on the list this year are Los Angeles partners Bryan Caforio, Krysta Pachman, and Meng Xi. Lawyers named again to the list include Houston partners Matthew Behncke, Ryan Caughey, Alex Kaplan, and David Peterson; Los Angeles partners Amanda Bonn and Oleg Elkhunovich; New York partner Mark Hatch-Miller; and Seattle partner Andres Healy.

Benchmark Litigation is “the only publication on the market to focus exclusively on litigation work.” The publication conducts research through “extensive interviews with litigators, dispute resolution specialists and their clients to identify the leading litigators and firms.”
