

Erica Harris named to Texas Lawyer's list of 20 'Winning Women'

08.14.2014 | 10 | 48AWARDS & RECOGNITIONS, NEWS

HOUSTON (August, 2014)—Texas Lawyer is honoring Susman Godfrey partner Erica Harris as one of its 20 “Winning Women.” The magazine says its honorees are women “who have achieved significant recent victories as well as displayed a track record of wins in which they prevailed in high-stakes cases; won large monetary awards; successfully defended against actions seeking substantial damages; handled first-of-their-kind or bet-the-company cases; or claimed victory in cases that had a national or statewide impact.”

Harris has practiced with Susman Godfrey for over 15 years, earning a reputation as an attorney who achieves significant results by thoroughly preparing and developing expert knowledge of her client and the issues at hand. She's been named a “Texas Super Lawyer” for two consecutive years by Law & Politics Magazine and was recently honored as one of the “Top-Rated Lawyers in Intellectual Property Law.”