SUSMAN GODFREY

Over his more than 50 years of practice, Seltzer has secured billions of dollars in verdicts and settlements for the clients he represents. Seltzer is currently serving as Court-appointed co-lead counsel for plaintiffs in a multidistrict class action litigation alleging DirecTV's exclusive NFL Sunday Ticket television broadcast package violates federal antitrust laws. He also is one of the lead counsel in the automotive parts antitrust litigation where historic settlements totaling more than $1.2 billion for the classes he represents have been achieved. He also serves as a senior member of the firm's trial team where the firm is co-lead counsel for the only one of several proposed classes to receive certification—in a consolidated antitrust proceeding arising out of the LIBOR-rate fixing scandal. Thus far the firm has helped secure $781 million in partial settlements for the class. Read his interview with Daily Journal here.

Kalpana Srinivasan
