

“Raise your hand.” Krysta Pachman Shares Advice for Young Lawyers on Law.com’s How I Made Partner Series

05.25.2021 | 10 | 21NEWS

Los Angeles-based Partner, Krysta Pachman, is featured on Law.com’s series, How I Made Partner, a Q&A series that interviews young lawyers who have recently been named Partner.

In the interview, Pachman discusses how her strong work ethic and commitment to her clients led to her being named Partner and shares her thoughts on the key to successful business development. She also describes the greatest influences on her career, provides networking suggestions, and shares the advice she would give younger associates who are looking to be named Partner.

You can read the interview in full here and more about Pachman’s career here.