HOUSTON, NEW YORK, LOS ANGELES and SEATTLE (July 27, 2016) — Susman Godfrey has yet again ranked prominently in the annual Vault survey of U.S. law firm associates. The full results have now been released, and the firm scored highly in several areas, including:

- Top U.S. Litigation Boutique: Susman Godfrey earned this ranking for the sixth year in a row, receiving the honor every year since the inception of the ranking in 2012
- Vault “Top 100”: For the first time, Susman Godfrey entered the Vault “Top 100” list of the best law firms to work at in the United States. The list includes some of the most prestigious law firms in the country.
- Leading Midsize Firm: The firm also scored well against other midsize firms. In particular, it was named the top midsize firm when it comes to giving substantive work to associates. The high level of work given to associates was a consistent theme in survey responses.

Susman Godfrey’s full profile can be found on the Vault website (subscription required). You can also click here to read the review of Vault’s report on Above the Law.

Considered a “go-to” resource for law school students, associates, partners and law firm recruiters, Vault’s annual rankings are determined by thousands of associates nationwide. While survey respondents may vote for up to three firms in each practice area, they are not permitted to vote for their own firm.
