The South Asian Bar Association of North America (SABA) has awarded Susman Godfrey Partner Kalpana Srinivasan the Cornerstone Award at its 15th Annual Convention on Saturday, June 20th in New York City.

The Cornerstone Award honors individuals who “best exemplify through their legal work the objectives of SABA including: promoting the professional development of the South Asian legal community through networking, education advocacy and mentoring; ensuring the civil liberties of the South Asian community; serving the legal interests of the South Asian community and the community at large; encouraging greater participation by the South Asian community in the legal profession and the government.”

In recognizing Srinivasan, SABA noted not only her high stakes litigation wins – including her recent $706.2 million unanimous jury verdict for client HouseCanary — but her commitment to creating opportunities for the next generation of South Asian attorneys and all young lawyers,
