Dear Neal,

To say you're the best is quite simply an understatement. Your work on behalf of your clients and your sustained excellence and dedication has given you an impeccable reputation. You are a brilliant and incisive advocate as well as a leader in the profession. Susman Godfrey is in good hands with a leader like Neal Manne.

Those are just a few of the nice things we heard about you as we researched this year's Lawdragon 500 Leading Lawyers in America. We are very proud to have selected you again; you epitomize everything a Lawdragon 500 member should be.

You deservedly receive every recognition there is for excellence. We hope you hold ours in a special place – we chose you from more than 25,000 under consideration for the only guide that includes equally plaintiff and defense lawyers, litigators and dealmakers, jurists and academicians. It is, statistically, almost an impossible list to make, and yet we consider it incomplete without you, year after year.

Thank you for all you've done for the profession, and for being a truly remarkable lawyer. We will be hosting small receptions later this year with the release of this year's magazine. We hope you will join us to raise a glass to you and your fellow Lawdragon 500 members.

Neal, you're the best. We are enormously proud to have you as a Lawdragon.

Yours,

Katrina
