1 (Case called) MR. SKLAVER: Good morning, your Honor. 2 3 Sklaver of Susman Godfrey for the plaintiffs. 4 MR. ARD: Good morning, your Honor. Seth Ard, Susman 5 Godfrey, for plaintiffs. MR. HETHERINGTON: Tom Hetherington and Erin Bennett 6 7 for the defendants. THE COURT: Have a seat. I think we can probably make 8 9 short work of this. 10 Other than my friends who are going to trial in a week 11 and a half, I've been advised that there are no objectors. Are 12 there any objectors here? 13 MR. SKLAVER: Your Honor, there are no objectors. 14 Who's in the courtroom are -- the class representatives are here. And I checked in with the claims administrator this 15 morning, Rust Consulting, and they still have not received any 16 17 objections, even as of last night. 18 THE COURT: Mr. Fleisher? 19 MR. FLEISHER: Yes. 20 THE COURT: I just wanted to see who you were. 21 And Mr. Berck? 22 MR. BERCK: Right here. 23 THE COURT: Good morning.

MR. SKLAVER: Tiger is not a class representative.

And who's here from Tiger?

SPRR is our representative. SPRR are here.

THE COURT: I was looking at Mr. Fleisher and Mr. Berck for a long time. Okay.

So, fine, let me just put a few things on the record.

The settlement is approved, and motion for attorneys fees is granted. There's an opinion. I'll hand you the opinion, and we'll post it on ECF today.

excellent settlement. I think this is a superb — this may be the best settlement pound for pound for the class that I've ever seen. And the fact that it comes literally at the 11th hour and 59th minute, when the case has been fully litigated, except in front of the jury, when you all know everything that there is to know about the strength and weaknesses of each other's cases, is a factor that weighs very, very, very heavily. I've only seen one other case like this, and that's City of Providence. And you were even closer to trial than the City of Providence people. And it gives me complete cognizance that this is a fair settlement; that this is a good resolution. Nobody comes out of it with everything, and everybody comes out of it with something. But I think it's an excellent, excellent result for the class. And I'm very happy to sign off on it.

I want to thank everyone for the hard work that the back table have done, but I want to thank everybody for all the hard work that you have put into this case from the beginning.

And I will sign this opinion, and I will post it. And I will give you copies. And you are free to go. MR. SKLAVER: Thank you, your Honor. MR. ARD: Thank you, your Honor. MR. HETHERINGTON: Thank you, your Honor. THE COURT: And as to the rest, I guess on the 21st I will see you folks. MR. HETHERINGTON: You'll see us on the 17th for our final pretrial. THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, everybody. (Adjourned)
