

THE ETHICS OF TEXAS NEGOTIATION: ARE THERE ANY?

1.0 hour of Ethics CLE Credit

Sure, we all negotiate every day and we never intentionally mislead the other side — well, maybe we puff a bit, but that's OK, isn't it? That's how the game is played, right? And certainly there's nothing inherently unethical about the negotiation process, right? And there's nothing wrong with exchanging draft documents via email, right? Nationally-renowned speaker Mike Rubin* will challenge your thinking, raise issues to ponder, and give you something to smile about.

When: Wednesday, February 20, 2013
11:30 a.m. Registration and Networking
12–1 p.m. Lunch and Presentation

Where: Lobby Conference Room, Wells Fargo Plaza
1000 Louisiana, Houston, Texas 77002

Tickets: $30 donation in advance, $40 donation at the door

Donate $30 online at www.LearnToParent.org and forward your receipt to eharris@susmangodfrey.com or mail checks payable to ESCAPE Family Resource Center to Erica Harris, Susman Godfrey LLP, 1000 Louisiana, Suite 5100, Houston, Texas 77002. Cash, check, and receipts for online donations in the amount of $40 also accepted at the door.

All proceeds of the event will benefit ESCAPE Family Resource Center, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that prevents child abuse and protects children of divorce through education.

*Mike Rubin heads the Appellate Practice Team of the multi-state law firm of McGlinchey Stafford PLLC and has served as an Adjunct Professor in finance, real estate and advanced legal ethics at Louisiana State University, Tulane, and Southern University law schools. As a former President of both the U.S. Federal Fifth Circuit Bar Association and the American College of Real Estate Lawyers and a current member of American Law Institute, American College of Appellate Lawyers and American College of Commercial Finance Attorneys, Mike Rubin is a well-recognized authority in the areas of real estate, appellate law, finance and ethics.
